(January 2018) (Learn how and when to remove this template message) Madhav is a good basketball player who cannot speak English well. He gets accepted into University based on a sports quota where he meets Riya Somani, an upper-class young girl who is allowed temporary admission based on a sports quota. They become good friends and play basketball every evening on the college court. When Madhav tells his roommate Shailesh and friends about Riya, they push him to ask Riya out for a date, but she stops him and asks him just to be a friend. Madhav's friends still encourage him to pursue Riya in the hopes that she will eventually date him. One day Madhav and Riya hang out at night. Madhav picks her up from her house, and after spending the night, when she comes back home, she kisses Madhav before entering her house. When Madhav attends Riya's birthday, he questions her about the nature of their relationship. Uncomfortable, Riya says that she is not his girlfriend, but they can maybe reach a compromise since they have reached halfway, and she offers to be his "Half Girlfriend." After a few days, Riya tells Madhav that she is leaving college and getting married. Madhav tries to stop her but she doesn't. After completing his college, Madhav goes back to his village where Madhav's mother runs a school where only boys study because of girls' absence of toilets. Madhav learns that Bill Gates is coming to Patna and will be funding grants to schools. Madhav decides to apply for a grant, for which he goes to Chanakya hotel in Patna. After the meeting, Madhav meets Riya, who was residing in the hotel and works for Closeup. They meet and hang out for some time, where Madhav comes to know that Riya has divorced because her husband and his mother tried to beat her. As Madhav needs to give a speech in English for Bill Gates, Riya helps him prepare for it. One day, he takes her to his house, where Madhav's mother asks her about her past- her marriage. She acts rudely with her upon knowing that she is a divorcee. A few days before the speech, when Riya had to go back to Patna, Madhav's mother requests her to stay away from Madhav. She, however, attends Madhav's speech, where he is successful in getting a grant from the Bill Gates Foundation. After the speech had ended, a small girl from the school hands a letter from Riya for Madhav. He learns from the letter that Riya has been diagnosed with blood cancer and will die in three months. She requests him not to search for her as she herself does not know where she will go. In the present day, Madhav is seen going to Riya's house to deliver her belongings to her mother, who starts crying on learning about Riya's disease. Madhav recalls that she wanted to become a singer at a bar in New York. Unprepared, Madhav goes to New York to visit his friend Shailesh. Shailesh and his wife Rutvi learn about the whole incident and try to deviate Madhav's attention from Riya. Rutvi tries to set him up with Anshika, her friend. They spend some time together. Madhav tries to find Riya for three months continuously, and his time runs out. On the last day, when he was attending his farewell party, he saw a video where Anshika, who had fallen in love with him, thanked him for being a part of his life. While she thanked him over a song while sitting at a bar, Madhav sees a blurred picture of the singer who somewhat looked similar to Riya, and the song was the same as the one which Riya sang. Desperate, he runs for the café amidst falling snow and without any transport. Upon reaching the café, he requests the guard to allow him to enter. He enters the bar and finds out the singer is indeed Riya. Riya and Madhav reconcile and consummate their relationship. A few years later, Madhav is seen talking to his mother about opening a new school, and Riya helps their daughter learn to play basketball, who is unable to do it. Riya tells her daughter never to give up. Cast Arjun Kapoor as Madhav Jha, a boy from Bihar who hardly knows to speak English and ends up attracted towards Riya Somani.
